PARENTS-TEACHERS MEETING—TUESDAY, DECEMBER 18th

In view of the very successful series of Parents-Teachers Council meetings held last year, similar gatherings will be held during the 1956-1957 year.

The first of such meetings will take place Tuesday evening, December 18th, at 8:00 o'clock, in the Kohl Hall. Parents of First Grade pupils of the Beth El Ner Tamid Hebrew School will have the opportunity to learn about the curriculum of the First Grade, the objectives and aims of the school, and the type of text book material used in instruction. In addition, they will be able to meet with the four Hebrew School teachers who are the instructors of the First Grade. The curriculum for the Saturday sessions, including the Junior Sabbath services, will be discussed by Rabbi Swichkow and Mr. Philip Zarem. Saturday School teachers will also be present, thus enabling parents to discuss the progress of their children.

Parents of children who have enrolled in our Hebrew School this past September are urged to attend.

EXCERPTS, ADDRESS OF GOLDA MEIR BEFORE
GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF U.N., DECEMBER 5, 1956

... The cease-fire secured by the Secretary-General last April was not honored ... violence increased on every border. Every sign pointed to the fact the Egyptian dictator was about to realize his cherished and fully publicized ambition of a second round aimed at destroying Israel. He had amassed huge stocks of heavy armaments, secured largely from the Soviet Union and affiliated countries. He had concluded treaties with Jordan and Syria according to which the military forces of these countries were placed under the Egyptian High Command. We knew of large concentrations of armour and fedayeen in the Egyptian bases in the Sinai Desert and the Gazo Strip directly along the borders of Israel ... we recognized the symptoms ... Certainly the people of Israel are not likely to forget what the threat of total extermination means.

The Security Council confirmed the illegality of the blockade (Suez Canal and Straits of Aqoba) ... The Council ordered Egypt to terminate these practices ... Their decisions have been flouted.

We are a small people in a small barren land which we revived with our labor and our love. The odds against us are heavy; but we have no alternative but to defend our lives and freedom and the right to security. We desire nothing more than peace, but we cannot equate peace merely with an apathetic readiness to be destroyed.

... The concept of annihilating Israel is a legacy of Hitler's war against the Jewish people, and it is no mere coincidence that the soldiers of Nasser had an Arabic translation of "Mein Kampf" in their knapsacks.

... What does Israel want? ... We wish to be secure against threats to our territorial integrity and national independence. We wish to be left alone to pursue the work of developing our country and building a new society founded on social justice and individual liberty. We wish to cooperate with our neighbors for the common good of all peoples of the region.

BAR MITZVAH

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Schnell announce the Bar Mitzvah of their son, Fred, Saturday, December 15, at 9:00 a.m.

CONGRATULATIONS

To Mr. and Mrs. Leo Saltzstein upon the recent marriage of their daughter, Nancy, to Elmer Rosen.

CHILDRENS CHOIR

The Beth El Ner Tamid "Childrens Choir" is being organized under the direction of Cantor Paul Gewirz. All children between the ages of 9 and 13 are invited to attend. Rehearsals are held every Wednesday evening at 7:00, in the Chapel.

Plans are being formulated for the Childrens Choir to participate in a special event. We therefore would appreciate good attendance at all our rehearsals.

The children are certain to have an enjoyable session of music. Kindly contact Cantor Gewirz for any further information.

ATTENTION "POSTERS"

The Past Bar and Bas Mitzvah group have been meeting for the past several weeks on Sunday morning at 9:15, in the Chapel. The informal manner in which they meet is most enjoyable. The boys are requested to bring their Talis and Tephillin. A brief weekday service is conducted by the boys and girls, after which, delicious refreshments are served. The girls may bring their aprons and act as "Hostesses". We would welcome that attraction very much.

Plans are being formulated for a "Pasters" bowling league on a regular basis. It is necessary to have twenty boys and girls, consisting of four teams, five on each team. Gifts will be awarded to the winning team at the end of the bowling session.

We urge all boys and girls to attend our "Posters" Sunday morning services. Also, those who are about to become Bar or Bas Mitzvah. We need your help in future planning of many other activities which will be of interest to all.

Sisterhood Notes

FUND RAISING REPORT —DECEMBER

A noon luncheon on December 10th, marked the kick off for our annual Hanar and Ad Book affair, with Mrs. David Dubow, of Chicago, as the guest speaker. Many of our dedicated Sisterhood women accepted their kits, and have begun solicitation for our annual fund raising project.

During the past months, we have outlined our financial needs to meet the budget we have set for ourselves. We are concerned with physical improvements in the Synagogue, as well as the social and cultural program for our youth. By our joint endeavors we can reach our goal, but it will require combined efforts of both the solicitors and each and every one of our members. We ask your full cooperation, so that our campaign can again this year go "over the top."

We are aware that most of us have been approached many times during the past few months for contributions; but our gifts to Sisterhood will help us further for ourselves, the welfare of the Spiritual Home, the Synagogue. To be a donor to your Sisterhood will repay you over and over again in personal satisfaction.

Fund Raising Co-ordinator

We hope many of you had an opportunity to see and hear the special Chanukah program over WXIX-TV, on Sunday, December 2, presented by the Bureau of Jewish Education. Among the participants of the program were women of our Sisterhood's Decoration Workshop. Mrs. Abe Becker, our chairman, showed her display of Chanukah decorations, which also were arranged in the lobby of the Jewish Community Center; and several of our other members, including Mesdms. P. Zarem, P. Geller, F. Lane, W. Furie, and U. Spiegel, showed the various procedures followed in making various objects. Our women were chosen because Dr. Furie, head of the Bureau, was so impressed with our Workshop and felt it to be a successful and productive group. We are very proud of all of them. Our Sisterhood members who have been creating decorations and favors for our meetings and luncheons have contributed immensely to the success and enjoyment of our affairs.

"HEY SISTER"

Have you been in the Synagogue recently in the evening and heard lovely, but unfamiliar, music floating through the halls? Lively, catchy tunes that left you humming and beating a rhythm? Then you unexpectedly had a sneak preview of the "spectacular" that will be presented at Sisterhood's Honor Luncheon on January 24.

The title of the show is "Hey Sister" (but like many a Hollywood production, could be changed). It is entirely original, with music and lyrics by Mr. Sam Lawent. Mrs. Harry Gorbitz is doing the choreography.

We don't want to detract from the surprise you can expect by telling you the story; but we can say, it will be one of the most outstanding shows ever presented.

All of the women are having a great deal of fun and enjoyment in participating. There still are a few parts to be filled. If you are interested in sharing these pleasant occasions, contact Mrs. Hyman Chester.

— THE VOICE OF THE MEN'S CLUB —

More Fun in Store For Men's Club Members

This is directed to our readers who are not members of the Men's Club.

Fellas, so far this year the members of the Men's Club have had a lot of fun. They have attended the Membership banquet and thoroughly enjoyed the sports night accompanying the banquet. They have partaken of the enjoyment during the Latke Party and danced to their heart's content at the Twixer. They have availed themselves of the opportunity to bowl each Sunday morning in our Temple League. And they will have loads of entertainment coming their way during subsequent Men's Club programs and events. In short, our members are happy to be a part of the Beth El Ner Tamid Men's Club. They know that it is a worth-while organization—one in which they can do good both for themselves and for the Temple in a society of good fellowship and wonderful comradeship. They know that they will thoroughly enjoy themselves. Speak with any member and he will tell you of the terrific advantages accruing from being a Men's Club member. So (and now it comes) why don't you join?

Our affable Membership Chairman, Aaron Bock, urges you through the VOICE to contact him and have him put you on the Men's Club rolls. The dues are small—only five dollars—and will entitle you to participate in the many enjoyable functions coming up. Bowlers are always needed each Sunday to fill in for those who cannot make it; our "Why's" program is due in January; Milwaukee's own Berle Deusing will present his movie and lecture in February; our "Treat Your Sweet" dinner and dance in March; and, of course, our annual dinner dance as our culminating affair. There's plenty of enjoyment left, fellows. Come on, join up and be one of us. You'll never regret it!

Copius Quantities Quaffed, Consumed ---Story of Latke Party

The unofficial count was 563 people present at the Latke Party, sponsored by the Men's Club on December 4, 1956. This in itself is quite a record. But the amount of food consumed is even a greater record. The gals in the kitchen that evening informed this reporter that over 600 half-pints of milk were dispensed, over 1,800 cups of coffee were made, and over 6,000 latkes were eaten. (This is real stuffing, no?)

The crowd was so large and poured in so quickly that the volunteer workers in the kitchen could not keep up, and unfortunately some latecomers had to wait to be served. But, after all, 6,000 pancakes is a lot and some time is required to prepare them. Most people cooperated nicely, and on the whole, everyone had a good time.

The "home talent" show presented was terrific! The kids put on quite a show for the audience, and all are to be commended for their efforts. The songs, the dances, and the musical presentations were well received by an audience which showed its appreciation by long and vigorous applause.

The Latke Party was successful only because of the herculean efforts by a group of volunteer mothers. These gals did service above and beyond the call, and here and now the VOICE wishes to express the grateful thanks of the Men's Club to Hannah Arenson, Roberta Bern, Millie Bock, Rose Brachman, Fannie Brafman, Sofie Dinkin, Edith Jacobson, Mrs. Samuel Kaufman, Faye Laber, Zelma Ottenstein, Cele Ridberg, Ann Rottman, Eloine Rudberg, Bess Schneider, Sarah Smith, Rae Smoller, Margaret Stern, and Ethel Wiviott. Bless you, gals—the party was a wonderful one due mainly to your efforts.

And while the thanks are going around, let us not forget Gene Edwards. He handled the Talent Show most excellently.

The Latke Party is now history. Let's look forward to the next one, shall we?

VOS HERT ZACH Goings On

One of our boys made good! The Men's Club wishes to acknowledge the honor of Man of the Year bestowed by the synagogue on Morry Okrent.

Glad to hear that Jack Marsden is home from the hospital after serious surgery and is feeling better.

Jack Pollack had a siege of illness, but is feeling pretty good now. (His bowling suffered, though.)

Margaret Stern is relaxing after a hectic week of Latkes and Twixer. But don't get too comfortable, Margaret, the donor affair is coming up shortly.

Fellows, the Sisterhood is sponsoring the New Year's Eve Dinner Dance, and they are in need of several of us who have weak minds and strong backs to help decorate Halevi Hall. So, will all the huskies please call Margaret Stern at Bluemound 8-7465 and volunteer your services.

Did you know that the Men's Club has two assistant chairmen (chair-ladies, I mean.) Mony, many thanks to Shirley Shain and Ida Lisberg for all the secretarial work they did in connection with the Latke Party and the Twixer.

Twixer Dance Enjoyed by All Who Attended

BETH ISRAEL MEMBERS
CONSPICUOUS BY PRESENCE

Well, gang, all of us who attended the Annual Twixer Dance Saturday evening, December 8, 1956, sure had a good time. There were about 300 persons in Halevi Hall, and this reporter noted the majority was in favor of Beth Israel. But of course, the weather was bad—sure!

But about the dance: it was swell. The orchestra was terrific and the atmosphere was most congenial. And these Beth Israelites are pretty good dancers, too, you know. They were tripping the light fantastic like professionals.

A new gimmic was tried—the people were asked to guess the amount of beans in a jar and the amount of pennies in another jar. This gimmic was most successful, too, for a member of Beth Israel — Mrs. Rapkin — won the jar of pennies for her lucky guess — a $10.33 guess. And our own Ed Nashban won the prize for guessing the number of beans in the jar. He won a combination clock-thermometer-barometer-pen desk set. (Now all you need is the desk, Ed.)

And yours truly enjoyed the dance, too. I held a lucky number and won a beautiful pair of earrings. (My wife thanks you, Milt.)

Our thanks go out to the committees of both men's clubs for making this dance the wonderful success it was. And our thanks to Mrs. Edith Jacobson for the use of the table linen used at the Twixer.

Next year, let's disregard the weather and make sure that we have a wonderful turnout for the Twixer of 1957.

TEN PIN ALLEY Bowling News

Our league is getting tighter than a shrunken shirt. As of December 2, 1956, the 13th week of bowling, there are only 5 points separating the first six teams. This situation could go down to the wire, but I'm afraid our constitutions are not that strong. We just couldn't take it.

Friedman Clothes and Polly Prim are tied for first place with identical high points of 34. Boris Furs, only two points behind, are followed quite closely by the Kendall Manufacturing team only a point and a half off. Wiviott Shell is a half point behind the Kendall team and the Kickerino's are in sixth place one point off of the Wiviott pace. Next in order, come Geller Steaks, Banner Lumber, Automatic Merchandise, Sherman Delicatessen, Modern Furniture, and Lewis Reolty.

So far, it looks as if the race has narrowed down to the first six teams, but there are many more weeks of bowling ahead. Any team in the league is capable of going on a hot streak and break out ahead. It's been done before, you know, so the top teams better not get too cocky. The bigger they are, you know . . .

The Sherman Delicatessen team is still high in the team series with a very fine 2,602. Banner Lumber is in second with a 2,528. Right behind them is the 2,525 thrown by the Kendall team. Aaron Shadur is on the board with his 603 series — good enough to take the third place spot. Harold Ottenstein is second with his fine 624. And in first place is the 634 rolled by Jack Pallack. Jack also holds the top position in the high individual game department with a terrific 256. Les Derzon and Ruby Plotkin share the runnerup spot with fine games of 241. Sherman Delicatessen and Bonner Lumber share the second place honors in the high team series with fine 920 games. Modern Furniture is tops with their 930.

And speaking of records, here's one for the book. Ed Nashban, for the first time in 10 years, threw a 3 count ball with a spare up. For shame, Edward.

For those of you who have not realized just how fast a league this is, let me enlighten you. There are 34 bowlers who have averages of 150 or better. 18 bowlers have averages ranging from 150 to 159. There are 8 fellows whose average is in the 160 to 169 range. Six of our boys roll between 170 and 179, and we have two in 180's

Harold Ottenstein still leads the pack with a real fine 187 — but look oui, boy — Jack Pollack is right behind with a 186.

You know, the spirit of friendly competition which permeates the air each Sunday morning is really wonderful. Each team is out to beat the other, and, no matter how lost the cause may be in the late frame, no one gives up. Everyone keeps on pitching. This is real competition, and that is what makes our bowling league such a great one.

Next Men's Club Meeting Jan. 22, 1957

Another reminder, boys, about our next meeting. It will be held Tuesday, January 22, 1957. We will have the opportunity to hear from Rabbi Swichkow about Jewish religion and ritual; and from our synagogue president, Abe Skolnik, about administrative policies and problems which affect our temple. So circle that date now, and be sure to attend.
